Some Sponsorship Packages include two or four golfers. All golfers will be provided with lunch, dinner, snacks, unlimited beer and soft drinks, a golf outing favor to each individual player, various other gifts and an opportunity to win door prizes.

Sponsor Directory

At this year's event, we will be introducing our Knights Sponsor Directory. Each player will receive the directory at the event. In addition, we will distribute these Directories to the entire membership of Council 6923 in Fishers (just over 400 families). We feel this is an important way for Knights to support those corporations that support our causes. This Directory will also be available on our Council website with the option of a hot link to sponsor web-sites or sending an email to a specific address.

Discount

Sponsors will also have the opportunity to offer a discount in the Knights Sponsor Directory.

Signage

As in years past, some sponsorship packages will include signage recognition at the tee box of their sponsored hole.

Special Recognition

Special Gold or Silver Sponsorship recognition on hole signage, electronic advertising, and in the Knights Sponsor Directory.

Sponsor-A-Priest

A unique sponsorship opportunity is available called Sponsor-A-Priest. Just as the name implies, you can allow a priest to play in the event free of charge. This sponsorship also includes an additional player entry fee.

Beer Cart

As in most golf outings, the most popular carts on the course will be the Refreshment Carts. Beer Sponsors will be recognized with signage on one of these mobile refreshment stands.

Verbal Recognition

Lunch and Title Sponsors will be recognized verbally and with signage at several points throughout the day including registration, lunch, and after the event during the raffle and dinner.

Gift Recognition

The title sponsor's logo will appear alongside the Knights of Columbus Charity Golf Outing logo on the event program and on the golf outing favor given to each player.

17TH ANNUAL CHARITY GOLF OUTING

GIBAULT

Gibault was founded in 1921 by the Indiana Knights of Columbus to provide troubled children and families the opportunity to grow emotionally, educationally, spiritually, physically and socially. The children's growth occurs within a highly structured environment where the youth can test new behaviors while working on individualized treatment plans. Treatment plans are designed to teach students to improve their life skills so that they can maximize their potential to accept responsibility for their actions and to gain control over their behaviors.

Gibault seeks to correct critical thinking errors, as well as skewed perceptions of socially and morally acceptable behaviors in troubled youth. Gibault's audience is the children, families, and communities we serve.

The children who benefit most from the services Gibault provides are: those with mild emotional disturbances, aggressive and oppositional behaviors, substance abuse issues, victims of physical and sexual abuse, perpetrators of physical and sexual abuse, learning disabled children, and children with a variety of clinical diagnosis.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

On October 25, 1792, in the fishing port of Cancale, in Brittany, France, a little girl was born whose name would one day be known on every continent. Less than four years later her father was lost at sea, like so many other Breton sailors. Jeanne Jugen and her siblings learned from their mother how to live poorly but courageously, with faith and love in God. When she was eighteen years old, Jeanne refused a first marriage proposal. "God wants me for Himself," she confided to her mother. "He is keeping me for a work which is not yet known, for a work which is not yet founded."

She would find this work more than twenty years later in Saint Servan, a city near Cancale, where she discovered a blind and paralyzed old woman who had been abandoned. Jeanne took her in her arms, brought her home and placed her in her own bed. Another old woman would follow, then a third...The Congregation of the Little Sisters of the Poor was born.

When Jeanne Jugen died on August 29, 1879, there were already 2,400 Little Sisters of the Poor caring for the elderly in nine countries. Today, in thirty-one countries around the world, we continue the work begun by Jeanne Jugen by serving the elderly of the human family.

Jeanne often told the young sisters, "Making the elderly happy, that is what counts." Today we wish to live out these words of our foundress with the help of many collaborators and friends.
